PAGEANTRY

The Coronation and the Homecoming Parade provided a splendid display of pageantry. Both events represented numerous organizations depicting the various areas of campus life.

The Homecoming Parade was highlighted by the procession of more than sixty floats and decorated cars symbolizing the artistic skill and beauty of the college scene.

RECREATION

Recreation offers many opportunities for the student who wishes to participate in extra-curricular activities. He may join a club which specializes in his particular interest, or he may join a service organization which will give him a chance to develop leadership abilities. Recreational activities are varied.

ORGANIZATIONS

Organizations are not solely for the purpose of identification but also to channel our thoughts into more useful and relaxing purposes. Enthusiastic participants in organizations serve the college by supplementing class studies, providing entertainment, governing student decisions, giving time to aid others and gathering together students, faculty, and administrators in discussions on a non-academic basis.

GROWTH

Growth is the nature of most successful academic institutions. The construction of new buildings develop a campus into a small city. To reach a point and remain there does not offer the opportunity for one to explore the depth of his potentiality. Therefore, progress must never cease; we must continue to excel and grow physically as well as mentally.

R

EGISTRATION

Neither rain, sleet, nor snow will stop registration. This is a time for new as well as old students to adjust themselves and get acquainted with their fellow classmates and their choice of courses. Standing in line can be a long tiring ordeal but when it is all over, there is a long remembrance of the whole experience.

E^NTERTAINMENT

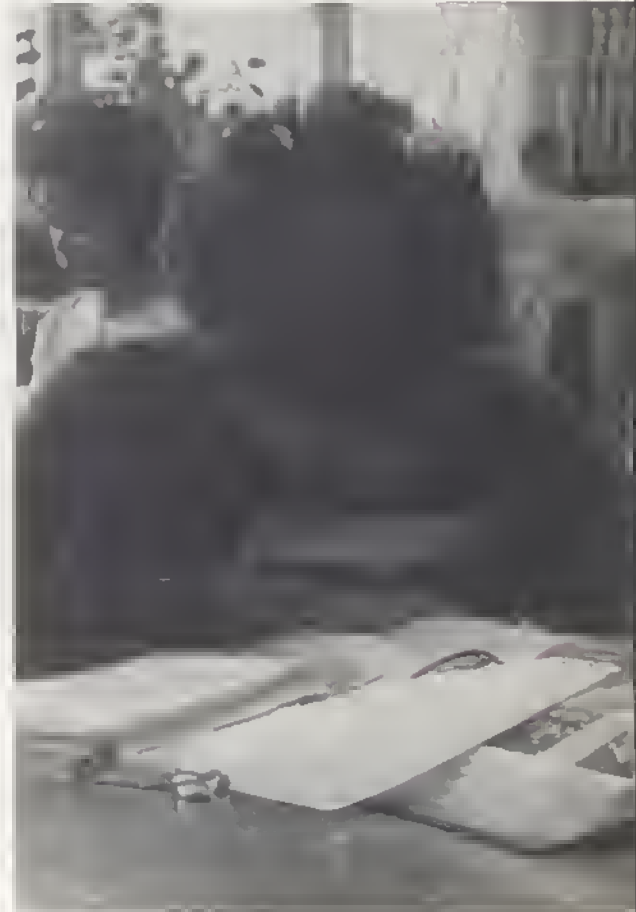

Entertainment is the time our Dear Alma Mater provides for her students to see and hear live artists which the Lyceum Committee plans for them.

The Kentucky Players, of the dramatics club, have an opportunity to gain experience in costume, stage design, acting, and other arts. The Players presented "The Tender Trap," which was a very cultural and recreational activity.

SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarships attract students of outstanding intellectual ability or academic achievement to further their training and learning abilities. Many scholarships are promoted in particular fields of study, such as science, humanities, and nursing.

SPORTS

Athletics, whether on the gridiron, diamond, track, hardwood, mats, or tennis court, create the desire to compete and excel. Spectators as well as active participants create team enthusiasm.

DEDICATION

Perhaps no singular personality in the history of Kentucky State College has made a more indelible impression upon the minds of students than the man to whom the 1967 edition of the THOROBRED is dedicated, Mr. Arnold Wood Wright.

Mr. Wright possesses a keen awareness of the need for intellectual enlightenment to meet the demands of this rapidly changing society. He has instilled in his pupils the belief that they can change and correct the inequities and injustices that exist in our world.

He has not contented himself to live on the periphery of contemporary life and offer easy "panaceas" for its social ills. But he has been willing to transform his words into positive action in order to effect a change.

Born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, Mr. Wright received the Bachelor of Science Degree from Alabama State Teachers College and the Master of Arts Degree from Atlanta University. He has done further graduate study at the University of Wisconsin and was the recipient of a National Science Foundation Fellowship for summer study in Anthropology at the University of Colorado.

Mr. Wright has made his influence felt far beyond the bounds of this institution. Through the years he has served with distinction such organizations as the Alpha Kappa Delta Honorary Sociological Fraternity, the American Sociological Society, The Tenth World Congress of Sociology, the Kentucky Welfare Association, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity and the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Since coming to K.S.C. in 1936, Mr. Wright has served in numerous capacities, including his present position as Associate Professor of Sociology.

In every respect, Mr. Wright is an inspiring teacher, a distinguished sociologist, and a genuine friend whose lectures and discussions have sent forth generations of young men and women determined to create a better tomorrow.

Mr. Arnold Wood Wright, for your profound contribution to the teaching profession, your unswerving loyalty to the goals of education, and your magnanimous spirit, we respectfully dedicate this yearbook.

Coach Melville Whedbee

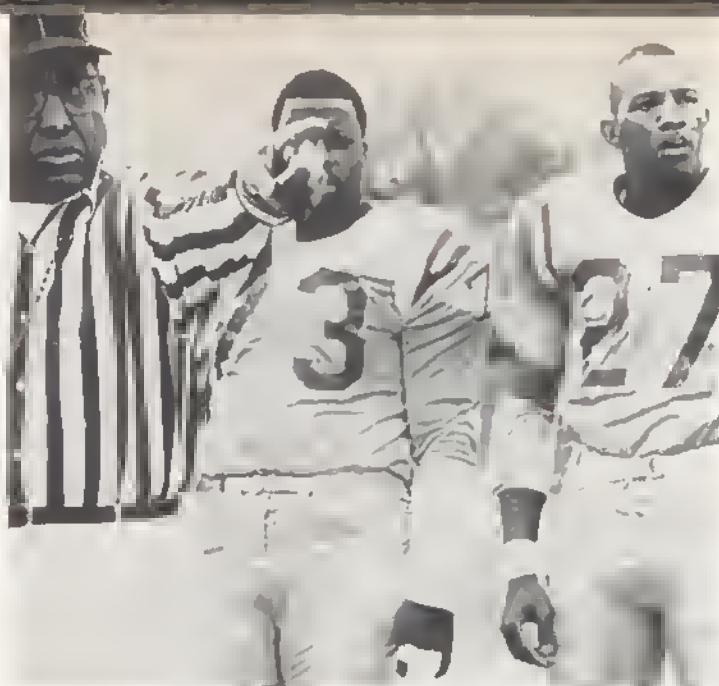

FOOTBALL

The 1966 Thorebreds had one of the most unusual seasons in recent years. Coach Whedbee, with the able assistance of Coach Mitchell, developed a powerful team, but this football season was not an overly successful one; yet, the players tried hard to make it so. The team, with several new men, functioned smoothly together.

BASKETBALL

While this basketball season was not an overly successful one, the players tried hard to make it so. It is precisely this spirit which eventually makes a team a winner. These boys are learning more than basketball; they are learning to take the successes and failures that inevitably come in everyone's life. So it is with this thought and this wish, that the team will achieve eventually what they deserve, and we thank the basketball team for its efforts.

HUMOR

Our group had forty-four and a half percent more cavities.

It's so relaxing . . .

Mercy, Mercy, Mercy!

Grillology!!

When my Dad was President of the United States . . .

What was that!!!

What's taking Rudy so long?

I would rather fight than switch!

They should have served Alka-Seltzer along with it.

Almost!!!

Touchdown!!!

I'm so glad . . .

Wait until I grow up . . .

Say, they have petrified!

If I only had the test.

Yes, you'll be the first!!!

I'll see you when my CARE package comes in.

Let's get one after the game.

I didn't steal the other juice.

Our get up and go, got up and went.

Victory, victory is our cry.

Working, striving, trying hard to make it!

Hail to our Alma Mater

Where's the action?

The End

Someone borrowed our T.V. set . . .

Report tomorrow?
